Move types:

| Light | Normal | Heavy | Stat |
|---|---|---|---|
| does roughly half the amount of damage a normal attack does, can be done twice per turn, or once with an extra action. | average D&D attack, takes one turn, does normal damage or less than normal with one effect (the greater the attack, the lesser the damage) | does 2.5 the amount of a standard attack, however it takes 2 moves to do so. can be interrupted. It also has a ¼th chance of stunning the enemy. | doesn't do any damage to the enemy, but can affect player/enemy's stats. |

Note: moves should not be upgraded/downgraded versions of each other, each should be unique.
